The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
2723 Q Street, N.W.
Washington 7, D.C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I request that you delay giving final approval to the manuscript for your new book, THE CRAFT OF INTELLIGENCE, until the Agency has had an opportunity to make recommendations on Security and other matters in reference to your proposed publication.

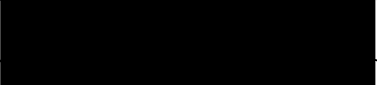

It is presumed that you submitted the manuscript in compliance with your agreement of 16 November 1950. Your final galley proof was submitted on 27 June 1963 and is receiving careful consideration within the Agency because of your eminence in the intelligence field and the fact that you were for so long the Director of Central Intelligence.

The manuscript is of interest not only to CIA, but to the entire intelligence community, including some of our allies.

Sincerely,

John A. McCone
Director
